1121	04 Jul 2020	PC 468	Unknown	Whilst buying a bottle of water from ASDA a gent had said hello to me in the store and thanked the police for their hard work. A short while later after paying for my water I returned to the car and a local cab driver (who was waiting for fares) approached and handed me 4 x bunches of Roses, he said that a male had asked if her could wait and hand the flowers to the police officer in the car.	£12	Accepted	Griffiths Sharon DI	Approved
1122	07 Jul 2020	PCSO 8060	Member of Public	I was pulled into a parking space to use my radio set. A lady came up to the window which was down and passed over 2 packs of welshcakes and put them on the passengers seat. She said that they were to thank the police service for all their hard work during the pandemic. I did briefly tell her that I wasn't able to accept gifts but it was extremely kind of her. She wouldn't take no for an answer, jumped back in her car and drove off.	£5.00	Accepted	Griffiths Sharon DI	Approved
1123	16 Jul 2020	A/Insp 472	Cardigan Castle	The Manager of Cardigan Castle has extended an invite to local police officers, for a Key Worker event they are holdnig. Off Duty officers will be attending. The purpose of the event is to celebrate the easing of the covid regulations, as a thank you to local key workers and also to act as a trial run for them before opening up to the public on the 17th July. They will be holding a BBQ with a bar in the castle gardens and offering the food and drink at half price. The food and drink will need to be paid for, albeit discounted. They can accommodate no more than five to ten officers due to social distancing and there will be other key workers attending such as Ambulance, Fire, NHS. The officers attending will be doing so in their own time and not attending in any official capacity. Whilst attending a Key Worker event, they are not attending as a Dyfed Powys representative.
