1186	08 Feb 2021	PC 193	Pre-school nursery	My Son attends at the donor's Nursery and the donor's pre-school curriculum theme this term is 'People who help us'. To support this, I attended at their location in Police Uniform with a marked Police Vehicle on 04/02/21 to provide pictures to colour and DPP stickers for the children. The visit also included a social-distanced viewing of the police vehicle. Unknown to myself, the donor then purchased Red Wine and Celebrations chocolates as a thank you and gave them to me 08/02/21 when dropping my son off at Nursery. This gift was unsolicited and it was courteously difficult to refuse in a manner that did not cause offence or embarrassment to the individual making the offer. The wine will be donated to local foodbank.	£12	Accepted	Griffiths Sharon DI	Approved

1189	15 Feb 2021	PC 664	Member of the public working in cosmetics industry	Hand sanitizer / hand lotion mini bottles x3. I was approached by a member of the public outside Tesco who advised that she would like to provide the sanitizer/lotion to emergency workers who are working through the pandemic. She advised that it wasn't from her personally but that she sells cosmetic items and at the start of the pandemic asked for donations so that she could facilitate enough creams for emergency workers. She received £400 in donations and has lots left to give out before they go to waste. She wanted to give them to me and was insistent that I had them. I advised her that I could not accept gifts but she felt she wanted to do her bit for the pandemic and they had already been bought through the donations. I agreed that I would place the sanitizers/cream	£3	Accepted	Griffiths Sharon DI	Approved
