PC 433	Female's name was not taken	Whilst on mobile uniform patrols with PS 709, I came across a broken down vehicle in Newtown, Powys. The driver had a flat tyre and was awaiting a friend to come and meet her to help change it but this would have taken up to 2 hours. I therefore changed the spare wheel for her to allow her to get home to New Radnor. In gratitude, the driver insisted she gave us a box of Maltesers, which we accepted as she was so grateful and continued to insist.	£3	Griffiths Sharon DI	Approved
